J. R. COOPER COMPANY

Save Your Potatoes

$5.50
and $7.95

With This Spray Pump.

Seed potatoes are high this year and the price promises to be good this fall. You should take no chances on loss to your crop—a few bushels will buy a "Kant Klog" spray pump, that will pay for itself many times the first season.

Nothing is better than a "Kant Klog" spray pump for fighting potato and other bugs and insects. Price: $5.50 and $7.95

It will last for years and will be a great help in fighting bugs in your garden and for spraying fruit trees.

Order from the Rochester Spray Pump Company, Rochester, N. Y., or leave your order at the Chronicle office.

The men who lead are the men who read.

Chas. Clark arrived from Nebraska Friday with a car of live stock and household goods. At the present he and wife are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Overdell. Mr. Clark is looking for an improved tract of land that will render it possible for him to grow a crop this year.

Crane's stationery by the quire and envelopes by the bunch at the Chronicle office. Nothing made better than Crane's.

Miss Woodie Sehon, of Monterey, was the guest of Mrs. Volner Hamby Sunday.

This year when food promises to be in such great demand, it is a wise policy to spray for blight on your potatoes, cucumbers and tomatoes. Use Bordeaux mixture and a good spray pump like the "Kant-Klog," advertised in these columns. You can make the Bordeaux mixture by using six pounds of bluestone and six pounds of unslacked lime. You can whitewash your buildings and new roosts with this sprayer and do many other things with it that makes it very cheap at the price of $5.50. See ad. on local page.

For Sale—One Store Coffee mill. Will sell cheap. Also one large bell suitable for farm or church house. Apply at Chronicle office.

I. S. Hyder, of Vandever, met with a very serious loss Saturday when both of his cows were killed by lightning. He had purchased one of the cows only a short time ago and was depending on them, largely, to feed his family while he made a crop. A. M. Davis was in town asking aid for Mr. Hyder to buy another cow. He secured several dollars and with the amount received for the hides of the dead ones Mr. Hyder will be able to buy one cow. He is a man of limited means and the loss falls very heavily on him.

Splendid assortment of Place Cards and Tally Cards; also Five Hundred score pads, at the Chronicle office.

Mrs. E. B. Berry, of Monterey, was the week-end guest of Mrs. Volner Hamby.

Fight potato bugs with a sprayer, it pays.

Misses Bessie Potter and Eula Bishop gave an informal dance in the Potter Hall Saturday evening in honor of Miss Carrie Cabin, of Chicago, the guest of Mrs. J. B. Johnson. About thirty young people were present and a delightful evening spent by all.
